Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
			Praying that the Lord will bless the work of my husband's hand (Deuteronomy 2:7a).	Praying that my husband is willing to be a shepherd of God's flock-watching over those in his care (1 Peter 5:2).	Praying that my husband will never set himself up against the Lord of heaven (Daniel 5:23).	Praying that my husband will experience the Word of God being living and active sharper than any double-edged sword (Hebrews 4:12).
Praying that my husband will never make a sacrifice or offering to the Lord that doesn't cost him something (1 Chronicles 21:24).	Praying that mercy, peace, and love will be my husband's in abundance (Jude 1:2).	Praying that God will give my husband a breadth of understanding as measureless as the sand on the seashore (1 Kings 4:29b).	Praying that my husband will show that he can be fully trusted (Titus 2:10a).	Praying that my husband will never swear falsely by or profane the name of God (Leviticus 19:12).	10 Praying that God will use my husband to refresh the hearts of the saints (Philemon 1:7).	Praying that my husband knows that God's eyes are open to the ways of all mankind (Jeremiah 32:19b).
Praying that my husband will defend and confirm the Gospel (Philippians 1:7b).	Praying that God will reassure my husband, speaking kindly to him (Genesis 50:21b).	Praying that my husband will follow the command, "Whoever loves God must also love his brother." (1 John 4:21).	Praying that the Lord will break the yoke of anything that has enslaved my husband and tear his shackles away (Nahum 1:13).	Praying that my husband knows that every good and perfect gift comes down from the Father of heavenly lights (James 1:17a).	Praying that my husband knows that the Lord summons him by name (Isaiah 45:3).	Praying that my husband knows that the wisdom of this world is foolishness in God's sight (1 Corinthians 3:19)
Praying that my husband will go in obedience to what the Word of God speaks to him (1 Chronicles 21:19).	Praying that my husband will be a reliable man who is entrusted and qualified to teach others about the faith (2 Timothy 2:2).	Praying that my husband will pour out his heart like water in the presence of the Lord (Lamentations 2:19b).	Praying that my husband will not love his life so much as to shrink from death (Revelation 12:11b).	Praying that my husband's feet will closely follow the Lord's steps (Job 23:11a).	Praying that my husband will never be deceived by finesounding arguments (Colossians 2:4).	Praying that my husband knows that the Lord has stored up an abundant amount of good things for those who fear Him (Psalm 31:19a).
Praying that my husband will know that he cannot add one single hour to his life by worrying (Matthew 6:7).	Praying that the Lord will rescue my husband from his enemies (Numbers 10:9).	Praying that my husband will never be ashamed of the Gospel because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes (Romans 1:16).	Praying that my husband will never reject the decrees of the Lord by following worthless idols and imitating the unbelievers around him (2 Kings 17:15).	Praying that my husband will be humble, gentle, patient, and bearing with others in love (Ephesians 4:2).	Praying that the Lord will pour out on my husband a spirit of grace and supplication (Zechariah 12:10).
